

Digital Payments:

Solving for the High Costs of Manual Dental Claim Payments

As the dental sector undergoes digital transformation, challenges with manual claim payment processing and paper checks result in additional costs and delayed payments, while increasing the risk of fraud and embezzlement.

Digital payment adoption improves efficiency

uncovers savings

mitigates risk

The Potential Cost Savings

According the 2023 CAQH Index Report

in dental claim payments, only 21.2% were digital.¹

in yearly savings by processing claim payments digitally.¹

in additional yearly savings by sharing and receiving digital remittance advice.¹

Increased Fraud Risk for Dental Claim Payments

60% of dentists have been a victim of embezzlement.²

140% increase in check fraud over four years.³

The Solution:

A Single Platform That Drives Digital Payment Adoption.

Dental plans can unlock increased digital adoption rates and fast, painless payment processing with ECHO.

Learn how you can get more bottom-line savings with a free savings analysis.

Get started at echohealthinc.com

Sources:
1: 2023 CAQH Index, <https://www.caqh.org/insights/caqh-index-report>
2: The Profitable Dentist. It's a FACT. Dentistry Is One of the Most Embezzled Professions – The Profitable Dentist
3: Thomson Reuters Institute Suspicious Activity Reports